

Why Join? Benefits of Membership

The American Public Works Association (APWA) connects public works and infrastructure professionals to the best education and advocacy anytime, anywhere to improve the quality of life for all. Being part of the premier professional organization for public works professionals, you will have access to a wide range of benefits that will help you advance your career, build your professional network, and make a positive impact on your community.

Here are just a few of the reasons why you should join the APWA:

Professional development opportunities. APWA offers a variety of training courses, webinars, and conferences that will help you stay current with the latest industry trends and developments. Whether you're looking to advance your technical skills or learn more about leadership and management, APWA has you covered.

Networking opportunities. APWA provides members with the opportunity to connect with other public works professionals from around the world. Whether you're looking to build relationships, share best practices, or collaborate on projects, the APWA's local chapters and national events provide excellent opportunities to connect.

Resources and publications. APWA offers a wealth of resources and publications to help you stay informed about industry news and trends. From the APWA Reporter to the Resource Center, plus blogs and online discussions, you'll have full access to the latest information and insights to help you excel in your career.

Advocacy efforts. APWA advocates for public works professionals at the local, state, and federal levels. By joining the APWA, you'll have a voice in shaping policies and funding that impact your community's public works infrastructure and services.

Awards and recognition. APWA offers a variety of awards and recognition programs that honor outstanding public works professionals and projects. By participating in these programs, you'll have the opportunity to showcase your skills and expertise, and be recognized for the important work you do.

Job board and career center. APWA offers a job board and career center to help members find job opportunities and advance their careers in public works.

Joining APWA is an investment in your career and your community. Becoming a member gives you access to the resources, connections, and opportunities you need to succeed as a public works professional.
